Who can vote at an Special General Meeting?

You can only vote at a Special General Meeting if all contributions and levies payable in respect of your lot/s have been duly paid by the date of the meeting notice.

Voting may be done in person (if addressee is an individual) or by a company nominee (if addressee is a corporation) or by a proxy appointed by the addressee. Voting by a subsidiary body, joint first mortgagees or joint covenant chargees can only be done by proxy. A vote by a mortgagee or covenant chargee of a development lot or neighbourhood lot has priority over a vote by the proprietor of that lot.

If voting by proxy, please ensure the completed proxy form is issued to W.T. Newey & Co. prior to the meeting.

What is a Quorum?

A quorum exists if:

- 1) At least one quarter of the number of people entitled to vote is present at the meeting (either in person or by a duly appointed proxy) OR
- 2) At least one quarter of the aggregate unit entitlement of the strata scheme is present at the meeting (either in person or by a duly appointed proxy)

What happens if a Quorum is not reached?

Once the first motion or item of business for consideration has been raised, there is half an hour during which a quorum can be reached. If after half an hour a quorum has not been reached the chairperson will adjourn the meeting for at least 7 days.

At the adjourned meeting, if there is no quorum present after 30 minutes after the time fixed for the adjourned meeting, the chairperson will declare that the persons present (in person or by duly appointed proxy), and who are entitled to vote, constitute a quorum for all the motions on the agenda
